So the House refused to assent to the said resolution.

The question then recurred on assenting to the preamble and resolution, submitted by Mr. Causin, as amended.

Mr. Gallagher moved further to amend the same by adding thereto the following :

“Resolved, That the imposition of a tariff of duties, designed to foster and protect any branch of industry, at the expense of another, is unwise, unconstitutional and subversive of the true interest of the people.”

Which was read.

On the question being put,

Will the House assent to the said amendment?

On motion of Mr. Gallagher,

The yeas and nays were required and appeared as follows :—
